

Please do not change our state law governing home telephone privacy. Before this law was passed I could not get through the dinner hour without at least one telephone solicitation. Others usually followed often late into the evening. Our law is an important one to me and the people of Indiana. Please do not allow the FCC to institute any law or ruling that will weaken or change it in any way. Thanks.